MEDIA ADVISORY
2020 Taste of Charlotte Festival

Taste of Charlotte Presented by Food Lion RESCHEDULED

The Taste of Charlotte Festival, North Carolina's largest food festival, previously scheduled for June 5-7, 2020, and the Race to the Taste 5K, have been postponed and RESCHEDULED for September due to the current Government Regulations surrounding COVID-19. The event offers more than 100 menu items for sampling from a collection of Charlotte's hottest restaurants along with a mix of family entertainment, unique shopping, live music, kid's activities, and a wide array of beer and fine wine. There is no cost for admission to the Taste of Charlotte Festival.

NEW INFORMATION

What: Taste of Charlotte Festival RESCHEDULED

Where: Uptown Charlotte ~ Tryon Street

When: Friday, September 18th – 11 a.m. to 11 p.m.
Saturday, September 19th – 11 a.m. to 11 p.m.
Sunday, September 20th – 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Festival owners are working closely with the City of Charlotte, Charlotte Center City Partners and the Health Department to ensure that the festival is safe for all festival attendees, restaurant and sponsor employees, and vendors. Restaurants and Sponsors rely on the Taste of Charlotte each year to help market their business. This year, as businesses rebound from the current restrictions, Taste of Charlotte will be even more necessary to help in the recovery. These Restaurants and Sponsors need your support throughout the year and can be found at www.tasteofcharlotte.com. The Taste of Charlotte Festival is now accepting applications for all Restaurants or Businesses interested in participating.
